Members of SSGS wrap up festive celebrations to usher Year of Monkey with lunch for residents of St John's Home of the Elderly Persons

24 Feb 2016 marked a significant and memorable day for members of Singapore Senior Golfers Society (SGSS) who hosted lunch for 30 residents from the St John's Home for Elderly Persons. The residents were treated to a scrumptious lunch at Ah Yat Seafood Restaurant in Turf City on this wet day, albeit an auspicious sign indeed as it is believed that "water symbolizes wealth".

In his opening address on this happy occasion, Dato' Loh Ah Joo, President of SSGS reiterated the importance of the SSGS being an inclusive organization, and the great joy that all members share in participating and contributing as a group to offer blessings to the underprivileged in the larger community.

We were honoured by the presence of special guests including Dr Tan Cheng Bock, Dr Alex Ooi, President of SICC and Mrs Ooi, as well as Mr Andrew Lim, Captain of SICC and Mrs Lim.

The event was generously sponsored by our Patron, KC Loh, President Dato' Loh Ah Joo, KC Chew and our supportive members. The tradition of sharing was extended to more members and their guests who made more contributions for the St John's Home when the hat was passed around.

In addition to the lunch, Dato' Loh presented a cheque of $5,000 to Mr. Woon Wee Yim, Chairman from the Home.

The residents were treated to games, evergreen numbers and Chinese New Year songs belted by Dr Tan and other SSGS members, with live music accompaniment from the MusicMix.

All in all, it was an afternoon well spent with our Singapore pioneers!
